

Tentative 5th APN Meeting Program

“Sustainable Urban Water Quality Management in Southeast Asia: Implementation of Research Development Tools”

Dates: Nov. 1-2, 2011

Venue: Chulalongkorn University, BKK, Thailand

Contact: suthisuthi@gmail.com

Day 1: Nov. 1, 2011

8.40-9.00: Registration

9.00-9.30: - Opening ceremony (by Dr. Jariya Boonjawat (APN’s scientific planning group), Dr. Suthipong Sthiannopkao (APN’s project leader, and BMA governor)

- Introduction of participants

- A group photograph

Session 1: Introduction of SEAWED and APN project overview

9.30-9.40: Overview of project and idea of SEAWED

9.40-10.00: SEAWED tutorial and demonstration

Session II A: Practical applications for SEAWED

10.00-10.30: Risk assessment – A case study of heavy metals contamination in Southeast Asian rivers

10.30-10.55: Break

Session II B: Practical applications for SEAWED

10.55-11.25: SWAT applications for urban water quality management

11.25-12.00: Development and applications for a regional water quality index

12.00-13.30: Lunch

Session III: Future applications and SEAWED as a tool for public policy

13.30-14.00: Development of water sustainable index

14.00-14.30: SWOT applications for urban water policies

14.30-14.50: The future of SEAWED – Where we intend to expand. What the future plans are for the database. How public administrators can utilize this now and for future issues regarding urban water quality (include a short summary of some of the topics presented).

14.50-15.15: Break

Session IV: Discussion on SEAWED and Implementation of Research tools

15.15-18.00: Gathering comments/suggestions from invited policy makers on applying and improving SEAWED & other research tools for urban water quality management

18.00-19.30: Dinner

Day 2: Nov. 2, 2011

Session V: Water governance

9.00-10.30: Water Governance issues

10.30-10.55: Coffee break

10.55-12.00: - Discussion on water governance

- Closing ceremony

12.00-13.30: Lunch

14.00-15.30: Meeting among APN members
