

JOB ANNOUNCEMENT: INTERNATIONAL COMMUNICATIONS SPECIALIST

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

The APEC Climate Center (APCC) is a leading climate information service provider in the Asia-Pacific region. We provide seasonal climate forecasts and other climate information products and services, conduct research and development activities, and organize capacity building initiatives for developing countries in the region. More information can be found in www.apcc21.org.

APCC is expanding its activities to enhance the socio-economic value and use of climate information and is need of creative and motivated new staff to help it pursue this new direction.

PRIMARY DUTIES

- Communication between international organizations and government agencies in APEC member economies and APCC
- International promotion of APCC's activities through a various channels (e.g. writing articles and briefing papers)
- Facilitation of international research projects and seeking funding opportunities
- Support of project proposals and other official documents

DESIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Fluency in English (native)
- Preference to degree holder in a field of climate change related subject

REQUIRED SKILLS AND COMPETENCIES

- Strong analytical and conceptual skills
- Capacity to work in a multidisciplinary and multicultural team
- Excellent communication and writing skills in English

To apply: Submit the application form (Click here) with a cover letter, a Curriculum Vitae, two letters of recommendation, and transcript to Mr. Seungwon Chung (swchung@apcc21.net) by August 31, 2012. For more information, please contact Dr. Jin Ho Yoo (jhyoo@apcc21.net).