

FEFU: A TERRITORY OF EVENTS

FEFU: A TERRITORY OF EVENTS

Dear Friends,

I am excited to welcome you at the Far Eastern Federal University, the largest university of the Russian Far East. As we preserve the longstanding traditions of scholarship and as we track the most novel trends in education, we plan to join the ranks of the best centers of education and research in the Asia Pacific.

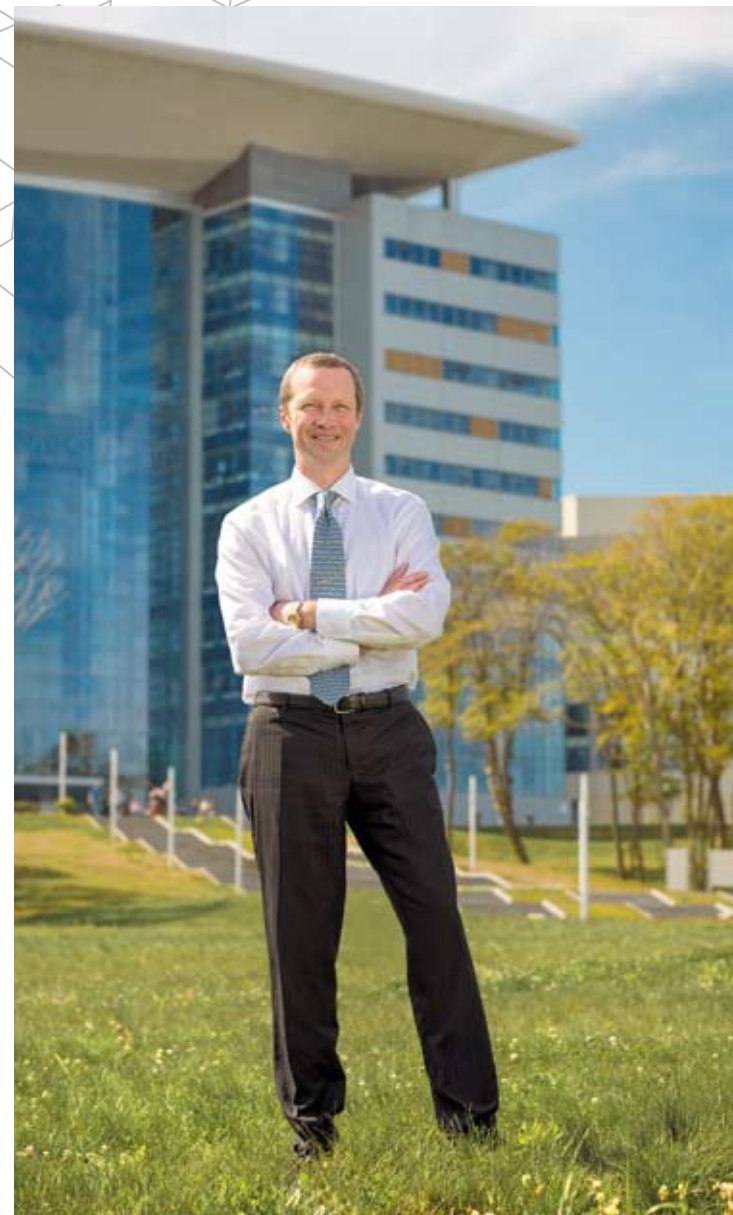

Besides teaching students, Far Eastern Federal University also aims to become a major international center of MICE industry, a forum for discussions and expertise of an international level. We have all preconditions for that, as the campus of the Far Eastern Federal University is not only considered to be the best one in Russia, but also one of the finest campuses of the world. It is located on the Pacific coast in the pristine area of the Russky Island not so far away from the mainland Vladivostok.

Our University has extensive capacities for holding events of even the highest level. We have already held over two hundred meetings, symposia, congresses, sports competitions and summits of both the Russian and the international levels. Among our major accomplishments are the 21st session of The Asia Pacific Parliamentary Forum, the annual meeting of the university rectors of The Association of Pacific Rim Universities, the First Far Eastern Media Summit, Russian National Student Spring Festival, Russia's Championship on Powerlifting, and many others.

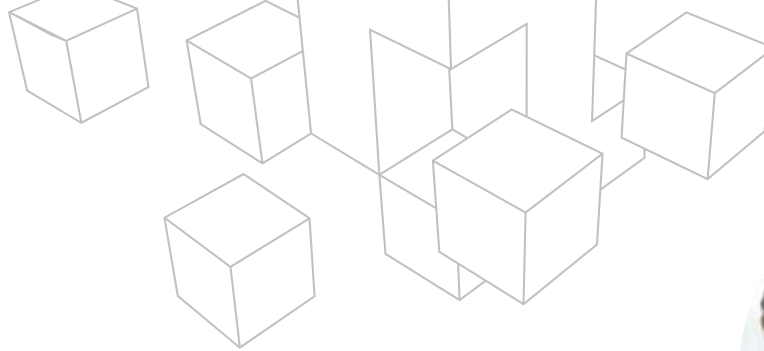

Dear partners, exhibitions participants, event organizers, leaders of business and government, we are always happy to see you at our hospitable campus! At your disposal are the best technologies and equipment along with the hotel accommodation with all of the facilities that you might need.

We are confident in our further mutually beneficial cooperation. Welcome to FEFU!

FEFU Rector Sergei Ivanets

OUR GUESTS

APEC Summit on September 2-9, 2012 has brought together the most influential politicians of the world at the lead of a Summit host, the President of Russia Vladimir Putin; amongst these leaders were the President of China Hu Jintao, United States Secretary of the State Hillary Clinton, prime ministers of Japan and Australia along with the heads of the other states.

The comfort of the FEFU campus was tested by the leaders of the highest level. In 2012-2014 President Vladimir Putin has stayed here multiple times.

In June 2013, the XVII Annual Meeting of Rectors of The Association of Pacific Rim Universities has brought together Rectors of the following leading universities of the Asia Pacific: the National University of Singapore, the University of Southern California, the Beijing University, the University of Oakland, the Washington University, the Seoul National University along with the other APRU member universities.

In August 2014, Ilya Lagutenko, an organizer of the V-ROX Rock Festival and one of Russia's most renowned pop and rock musicians, together with his fellows from different countries of the world have stayed at the campus hotel complex.

Rock Brynner, an American author and a historian, a Hollywood celebrity, a son of an Oscar-winning actor Yul Brynner, is a frequent guest of the campus.

Amongst the many guests of last year's 'Summer on the Rusky Island' festival were Kenny Belaey, a ten-time winner of the BMX World Championship and the Guinness Book of World Records champion, and Lukas Irmeler, a German ropewalker.

The XVI Russian National Freestyle Wrestling Tournament on the FEFU Rector's Cup was officially opened in April 2015, by an outstanding wrestler, a Merited Master of Sports of the Russian Federation, three times Olympic champion Alexander Karelin.

A famous English photographer Rolph Gobits, who was taking photos of Queen Elizabeth II and who collaborated with such companies as Apple, BMW, Mercedes Benz and the British Airways lives at FEFU campus and teaches here since 2013.

ORGANIZATION OF EVENTS: FROM A TO Z

FEFU campus is a multifunctional innovative platform for organization of events of any format.

Today FEFU campus is the most renowned and reputed place to hold large-scale international events at the Russia's East and in the whole of the Asia Pacific. FEFU's positioning in the vicinity of the major transportation connection points offers university unique opportunities for bringing guests from all parts of the Asia Pacific Region.
