

LOSS & DAMAGE

Negative effects of the changing climate that people have not been able to cope with or adapt to

EXAMPLES

Economic

Loss of profit

Loss of wages and earnings

Damage to properties

Non-economic

Loss of biodiversity

Loss of cultural heritage and identity

Damage to health

Cannot be avoided but can be reduced through:

increase

ADAPTATION STRATEGIES

GREENHOUSE GAS EMISSIONS decrease

CAUSED BY THESE EVENTS

Slow onset

drought

sea level rise

coastal erosion

Rapid onset

storm surge

typhoon

flood

This is Part 1 of a four-part infographic series on Loss and Damage. The next part will be on loss and damage in Southeast Asia.